

CURRICULUM VITAE

Lindsay Fox, Med, RRT

Director of Clinical Education, Respiratory Care Program
School of Health Professions, University of Texas Medical Branch
301 University Boulevard
Galveston, TX 77555-1146
(409) 747-1631

EDUCATION

Master of Education, Health Education and Promotion, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri, December, 2008

- GPA: 4.0
- Special Courses: College Teaching, Advanced Human Learning, Development Aspects of Human Learning, Health Education I and II, Statistics, and Research

Bachelor of Health Science, Respiratory Therapy, University of Missouri, Columbia, Missouri, May 2004

- GPA: 3.89 with Magna Cum Laude Honors
- Special Courses: Organization and Administration, Interdisciplinary Problem-based Learning courses, ACLS, Neonatal and Pediatric Intensive Care

BOARD CERTIFICATION

NBRC RRT Credential #87263 – Expires September 30, 2014

LICENSURE INFORMATION:

Texas Respiratory Care Practitioners License # 70982 – Expires December 31, 2009

Missouri Respiratory Care Practitioners License – Expires July 31, 2010

PROFESSIONAL AND TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Clinical Instructor, University of Missouri Cardiopulmonary and Diagnostic Science Department, Respiratory Therapy Program, Columbia, Missouri, August 2006 – May, 2008

- Educate undergraduate students of respiratory therapy, radiology, nuclear medicine, and diagnostic medical ultrasound
- Provide course syllabi and lectures
- Write and evaluate examinations
- Instruct medical students
- Educate in the clinical setting
- Provide community health services such as pulmonary screening and health education
- Prepare and present continuing education lectures to respiratory therapists

COURSES TAUGHT

Undergraduate

Pulmonary Pathophysiology
Cardiopulmonary Pharmacology
Cardiovascular and Pulmonary Diagnostic Applications I: PBL
Clinical RT II: Online Course
ACLS, BLS, NRP, and PALS Certification Classes

Graduate

ABG Lab for 2nd year medical students
Interprofessional Curriculum in Patient Safety and Quality

Clinical Instructor, Kingwood College, Respiratory Care Program, Kingwood, Texas, January 2009 – May 2009
– Taught pediatric critical care clinicals

Guest Lectures

April 3, 2007: Physical Therapy Class – “Bronchial Hygiene”
April 12, 2007: CEU Lecture – “New Drugs and Devices for Pulmonary Disease”
May 1, 2008: MSRC State Meeting – “Mystery Diagnosis: An Interactive Case Study”
April 15, 2009: TCH Student Symposium – “Professionalism”

COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

State/Regional

MSRC Education Committee: Fall 2006 – August 2008

UMC

Student Affairs/Scholarship Committee: Fall 2007 – August 2008

TEACHING RESPONSIBILITIES

A. TEACHING RESPONSIBILITIES AT UTMB

a. Teaching:

School of Allied Health Sciences (SAHS):

Respiratory Pharmacology
Adult Critical Care Clinical I, II, and III

b. Students/Mentees/Advisees/Trainees:

Undergraduate students:

Respiratory Care Junior and Senior Students

MEMBERSHIP IN SCIENTIFIC SOCIETIES/PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS:

American Association of Respiratory Care

HONORS:

- Valedictorian of Moberly Senior High School
- Magna Cum Laude Honors from University of Missouri-Columbia
- Alpha Eta Society Award, 2004
- Lambda Beta Society Award, 2003
- Health Recruiter Scholarship, 2002
- John Roger's Scholarship, 2003
- Bright Flight Scholar, 2000
- AARC Member, 2002 – Present
- SHARP Scholar, 2000
- 2007 Gertrude Strickler Scholarship Recipient
- 2008 Excellence in Education Award

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION:

Professional Skills

- Competence in keyboarding, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft PowerPoint
- Proficiency in developing classes online on Blackboard
- Creating presentations
- Supervising
- Instructing in clinical settings
- Educating the community
- Public speaking

INVITED LECTURES AT SYMPOSIA AND CONFERENCES:

May 1, 2008: MSRC State Meeting – “Mystery Diagnosis: An Interactive Case Study”